ENDOWMENT ANNOUNCES 2016-2017 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Scholarship Endowment is pleased to award a 2016-17 scholarship to Tracy Edwards, a physics major at Hampton University. Tracy will participate in a medical physics internship at Vanderbilt University School of Medicine this summer. Tracy plans to become a physician.

The Scholarship Endowment is also awarded a 2016-17 scholarship to Lauryn Gant, an honors graduate from South County High School, Virginia. Lauryn plans to attend Tuskegee University College of Agriculture, Environment and Nutrition Science, majoring in Animal Poultry and Veterinary Sciences. Lauren plans to become a veterinarian.

The Joshua David Gardner Memorial Scholarship Endowment Inc. was established in June 2007 to provide scholarships to undergraduates attending historically black colleges and universities. The Joshua David Gardner Memorial Scholarship Endowment also provides free information, workshops and seminars for parents, middle school and high school students on college preparation, application and financial aid processes.

The Endowment was created in tribute to our son—as a way to share our love and hope with others. Through this Endowment, we hope to touch the lives of other students by helping them achieve their academic goals and ambitions.
